

Mitch Wayne - P.E.

Principal Engineer

Background

Mitch is a license Professional Engineer and is a Principal Engineer with Pillar Engineering. Mitch's expertise is in Project Engineering, gained through almost 40 years of manufacturing experience in pulp & paper. During his time in industry, Mitch has held roles as an Industrial Engineer, Capital Project Engineer, and Engineering Manager.

Specialization

At Pillar Engineering, Mitch specializes in, but is not limited to, the following pillars:

Reliability

- Predictive Program Development
- Condition Based Maintenance
- Chronic Failure Reduction

Engineering

- Capital Project Management
- Small Project Management
- Obsolete Equipment Upgrades

Education

Mitch holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Minnesota.

Supporting American manufacturing by providing experienced professional help without adding to headcount.